

THE BUBBLING SPRING

He asked again "Well, maybe because deers come by and drink out of you."

"No, that's not it." I splashed.

"Now, well, maybe it's because I come by, once in a while, and drink from you," he asked again.

What an honor it is to know that a man of God drinks from here, but I still had to answer, "No that's not the reason I'm bubbling either."

"Well, what makes you bubble like that? What makes you so happy, always gushing up?" The prophet finally asked.

I told him, "It's not me. It's something behind me, pushing me."

Oh how the man of God loved that! He said that Christians are the same way. There is something behind them pushing, and pushing that makes them want to just bubble over!

How great it was to hear a prophet of God speak again. Would you like to hear a prophet speak? If you play Brother Branham's tape "Pardon" (63-1028) you can hear him tell my story. And when you're finished, don't forget to take the quiz on pages 6 and 7!
